Certification by HRPA:
Guide to the Alternate Route

March 2017

This document is intended to provide useful information about the Alternate Route as part of HRPA’s certification process. This document is not meant to replace HRPA’s Designation Handbook. This document does not provide details of all the policies and procedures that apply to the certification process; it is intended to focus on those aspects that are likely to be of most interest to those who wish to pursue the Alternate Route. For more information about the requirements to earn the CHRP and CHRL designations, please visit the Regulation and HR Designations section of our website.

The Alternate Route to Fulfilling the Coursework Requirement

HRPA has provided alternate ways of meeting the coursework requirement. These alternate routes are intended for experienced HR professionals or those with advanced education in HR. To provide the greatest flexibility, a points-based system was developed. This system gives points for experience, formal training, coursework and other relevant designations. Fifty points are needed to pass the Alternate Route and meet the coursework requirement to be eligible to write either the CKE1/CKE2 exams.

Requirements that can be met through the Alternate Route

Successful Alternate Route applicants are:

- Deemed to have met the coursework requirement
- Eligible to write the Comprehensive Knowledge Exam 1 (CKE1) or Comprehensive Knowledge Exam 2 (CKE2); depending on which designation you are looking to pursue.

Successful Alternate Route applicants who have a minimum of 3 years of professional level HR experience approved through the Alternate Route are deemed to have also met the experience requirement, which is a requirement in order to pursue the CHRL designation, as well if the experience has occurred within the past 10 years with at least three months experience from within the past two years.
The Alternate Route: Two Streams

Stream 1: Education and HR Designations (Academic Stream)
- No adjudication required
- Can be submitted at any time

Stream 2: Education, HR Designations and/or Experience (Experience Stream)
- Must be reviewed by a panel of the Experience Assessment Committee (adjudication required for the experience component)
- Deadline for submission is the last business day of each month

Points Breakdown and Supporting Documentation

In filling out the application, one must determine what categories their experience/credentials fall under and then assign the points accordingly. Please note that each item can only fall under ONE category. A minimum of 50 points are required to submit the application.

- Courses taught must be HPRA-approved courses (Please refer to the ‘School Search’ tool on our website for a list of current HRPA approved courses.), or HR courses taught at an accredited college or university.
- If your course and corresponding academic institution are not currently pre-approved, you will need to complete an application through Comparative Education Services to determine if the college or university where you provided HR instruction was accredited at the time you were teaching. Once you have received the report from Comparative Education Services, you will need to send it in along with your application.
- Need to submit the questionnaire, job description and org. chart for each position being submitted in this category.
- Need to include the course outline for the course taught.

Completion of any of the nine required courses in HR
- Approved courses can be found using the ‘School Search’ tool on our website.
- Courses must have been taken within the last 10 years and meet the required grade level (minimum 65%).
- An official hard copy original transcript from the educational institution must be submitted with the application.
Criteria for the Alternate Route Experience

Work experience must be in HR at a professional level. International experience is considered the same as Canadian experience, provided it meets the requirements for relevant experience.

What is professional experience?

In determining whether HR experience is at the professional level, the following factors are taken into consideration:

- Independence of actions — relates to the amount of planning, self-direction, decision-making and autonomy involved in the work experience;
- Depth of work requirements — relates to the extent to which work experience requires information analysis and interpretation of relevant information;
- Level of interaction — relates to the degree to which the individual interacts with a broad spectrum of contacts, including decision-makers; and
- Responsibility for work outcome — relates to the level of accountability for work and decisions.

What is HR experience?

The definition of HR experience is any experience which falls within the scope of practice delineated in HRPA’s Rules of Professional Conduct.

The Scope of HR Practice is the creation and implementation of all policies, practices and processes to effectively organize and manage all human capital resources in the workplace in service of the ultimate goal of enhancing business outcomes. Human resources management involves maintaining or changing relations between employees, between employers or between employers and employees.

The Practice of Human Resources Management includes, but is not limited to, one or more of the following:

1. The development and implementation of human resources policies and procedures;
2. Consultation in the area of human resources management;
3. Providing advice to clients, managers and employees in matters pertaining to management of human resources;
4. The representation of clients and organizations in proceedings related to human resources management;
5. Program development and evaluation in the area of human resources management;
6. The supervision of other human resources professionals whether registered or non-registered;
7. Coaching of employees, managers and other individuals in matters relating to work and employment;

8. The conduct of research in the area of human resources management;

9. Teaching in the area of human resources management.

To be credited, fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the position’s activities must be in human resources as defined above. Beyond this, time will be credited proportionally. The experience must have occurred within the last 10 years.

Both the Alternate Route and the Validation of Experience give credit for experience. The experience requirements have been harmonized in the sense that the definition and criteria for experience are the same in the Alternate Route and in the Validation of Experience.

For more information about submitting HR experience and the requirements, please review the Experience Requirement section of HRPA’s website.

*Upon requesting a degree assessment report from WES, an e-report (electronic report) is automatically generated in addition to a hard copy. Once the assessment is complete, HRPA is notified by WES and is able to access the e-report. HRPA will accept the degree assessment in this format instead of requiring applicants to submit the hard copy of the report. The HRPA will also accept hard copy reports from WES.

Please note that this is only an option through WES, and not through CES or ICAS at this time.

For more information on this process, please contact WES directly using the contact information above.
