HRPA Challenge Examination Registration Form

HRPA members may register for HRPA Challenge Examinations. Challenge Examinations are one of several options available to individuals looking to gain the “HRPA Coursework Requirement” (one of several eligibility requirements to qualify to write the Comprehensive Knowledge Exam (CKE). Challenge Examinations are offered three times per year; in January, May and September. Please consult the HRPA website for exact exam dates, registration and withdrawal deadlines. Note that a maximum of three examinations can be written per scheduled offering. The passing grade for a Challenge Examination is 65%. If an individual chooses to partake in Challenge Exams, they are responsible for ensuring that they meet all other eligibility criteria to register for the Comprehensive Knowledge Exam i.e. the overall average etc.

Challenge Examinations are recommended:

- when a required course grade does not meet HRPA’s minimum grade requirement and/or;
- when a required course was taken more than ten years ago or;
- when an individual has extensive job-related or academic-related experience in a subject area and does not have the required academic course for the given subject area

Challenge Exams and Eligibility to write the Comprehensive Knowledge Exam:

To be eligible to write the Comprehensive Knowledge Exam, one must meet the following criteria:

- be a member of HRPA in good standing;
- complete all 9 required courses in accordance with HRPA requirements, and have an overall average of 70% with no individual course grade less than 65%. Note that each course must have been completed within ten years of successfully writing the CKE.

Please note, individuals seeking the CHRL designation will also require a degree as part of certification criteria.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

In registering for an HRPA Challenge Exam, I declare that I have read and agree to the above important information and to the following terms and conditions:

- I warrant that all information I have provided on my application form is complete and accurate and I further understand that this information is subject to verification by HRPA at any time.
- I agree to abide by all examination rules and instructions.
- I agree to keep the content of the challenge exams confidential by not divulging any details of its contents to anyone through any method including but not limited to (email, blogs chat groups, i.e. Face book). I understand that releasing any said information could result in disciplinary action.
- I have read and understand that HRPA will work with registrants who require support in writing their exams due to personal disability or religious observance. Registrants must notify HRPA of their needs at the time of registration. Should you require additional resources in order to write the exam, or an alternate writing date due to religious observance, please indicate this at the top of your registration form. HRPA will then be in contact with you to discuss options and available support. If you fail to notify HRPA of your needs at the time of registration, we can’t guarantee that we will be able to accommodate your needs at the time of examination. HRPA staff require time to work with proctor sites and other resource mediums to make alternate arrangements on your behalf.
- I have read and understand all of the policies noted in the form, including those regarding exam cancellation, disqualifications, withdrawals and deferrals.
- I am aware that failure to show up for the exam, barring illness or other personal emergency, will result in forfeiture of the examination fee. HRPA will require proper documentation.
- I am aware that it is my responsibility to keep HRPA informed of any changes in my contact information. HRPA relies on our membership database for up to date information. For members: Please log on to the HRPA website at www.hrpa.ca to update your profile at any time.
- I understand that the information collected by means of this form will be used only for the purposes of the administering the exams. I understand that this information may be shared with other third parties; such parties having expressly agreed to abide by HRPA’s Privacy Policy.
- I agree that all information provided by means of this registration form as well as responses to exam questions become property of HRPA.

I have read and agree to the terms and conditions listed above.
