

Q&A

October 26, 2022 – What to do if a Complaint is About YOU?

1. Is there statistics of how many complaints go to discipline versus resolution without discipline, versus dismissal of complaint based on lack of merit?

Each quarter, the Office of the Registrar prepares a report on the HRPAs regulatory activity. These reports provide a summary of complaints activity and can be found here.

2. Is there a statute of limitations on complaints? How long after the complaint can a person complain?

If you believe that a registrant has failed to meet their professional obligations, it is advised you file a complaint at that time. However, there is no limitations when a complainant can file the complaint.
